General Education Foundations of Arts and Humanities (AH) Course Information Sheet

Please submit this sheet for each proposed course along with 1) a syllabus describing the key components of the course that will be taught regardless of the instructor and 2) assignment guidelines.

Department, Course Number, and Title  ________________________________

The aim of the GE AH course offerings is:
   To provide students with the perspectives and intellectual skills necessary to comprehend and think critically about our situation in the world as human beings. In particular, these courses provide students with the basic means to appreciate and evaluate the ongoing efforts of humans to explain, translate, and transform our diverse experiences of the world through such media as language, literature, philosophical systems, images, sounds, and performances. These courses will introduce students to the historical development and fundamental intellectual and ethical issues associated with the arts and humanities and may also investigate the complex relations between artistic and humanistic expression and other facets of society and culture.

General Education AH Student Goals: Courses fulfilling the GE AH will provide a minimum of five units and should align with each of the following four general goals:
   1. Students will gain knowledge in the Arts and Humanities.
   2. Students will engage in complex analysis and reasoning.
   3. Students will demonstrate media and information literacy.
   4. Students will communicate effectively.

General Education AH Student Learning Outcomes: Each course should have student learning outcomes listed in the syllabus. These outcomes may be tied to a specific discipline but should be associated with the four broad categories listed above (please see Appendix I: Arts and Humanities Learning Outcomes for a sample list of possible learning outcomes supporting each goal).

General Guidelines for GE AH Courses:
   • Introductory Courses: An “introductory” class offered for GE by a department or an IDP should introduce students to the discipline’s methodologies or “ways of knowing.”
   • Upper Division Courses: Most GE Courses are lower division courses in order to be accessible to any student, including first-year students. While GE courses may be upper division, they should have no prerequisites and students should be able to take them and understand the material with the background expected from all UCLA students.
   • Writing Assignments: GE courses within the Arts & Humanities foundations should contain a significant writing component.
   • Unit guidelines: GE courses within Arts and Humanities are all at least 5-units.

Please indicate the area/s which you believe this course should satisfy. Please note, while you can request review for multiple subcategories across Foundation Areas, GEs are not typically approved for more than 2 subcategories.

☐ Literary Cultural Analysis
☐ Philosophic and Linguistic Analysis
☐ Visual and Performance Arts Analysis and Practice.
Briefly describe the rationale for assignment to AH foundation area and subgroup(s) chosen.

Please present a concise explanation for the following:

How does your course address each of the four learning goals?

Please provide a sample assignment, term paper/exam, essay prompt, or other form of assessment.

What class activities (e.g. homework, papers, blog posts, projects, etc.) will involve writing? How will the writing be evaluated?

If the course is an upper division course (100-199), please discuss how the course will be accessible to all UCLA students, including first-years?
